DESTINATION WEDDING GURU JACQUELINE JOHNSON OF MARRYCARIBBEAN.COM TEAMS UP WITH THE GREAT BRIDAL EXPO

MarryCaribbean.com, the popular island wedding Web site receiving more than a million hits per month, has formed an alliance with the Great Bridal Expo. For 30 years, the Great Bridal Expo has produced a high-style national touring bridal event. This year, Marrycaribbean.com and the Great Bridal Expo will create a Caribbean Bridal Pavilion, a complete resource for couples who are planning their weddings or honeymoons in the Caribbean.

The Great Bridal Expo will feature the Caribbean Pavilion in 15 of its top markets in the United States during 2008. The Great Bridal Expo is the only bridal event to be named one of Trade Show Week's top 50 consumer tradeshows in North America.

"MarryCaribbean.com and the Great Bridal Expo form a winning combination," says Jacqueline Johnson of Marrycaribbean.com and CaribbeanWeddingassociation.com. "With the regional expertise of MarryCaribbean.com and the range of the Great Bridal Expo, wedding planners will find everything they could want in a Caribbean destination wedding or honeymoon."

The nationally sponsored tour spans the U.S., visiting major cities twice a year and reaching more than 170,000 about-to-be-marrieds, their families and friends, who are actively involved in the wedding planning process. Everything for the wedding, honeymoon and home is featured.
